Lakeside Community Council Minutes July 24, 2006

Meeting called to order at 7:00 pm by Chairman David Reynolds. Minutes for June meeting were read by Secretary Thornburg and a motion was made by Gregg Schoh and seconded by Dave Anderson to accept as read. Minutes accepted.

Members present Dave Reynolds, Gregg Schoh, Jerry Thornburg, Bill Buxton. Absent Bruce Young and Janet Heinze.

Agenda items as follows;

- A. North of Spring Creek Road interest in annexation into Lakeside Neighborhood Plan
- B. Ben Williams Park
- C. County Growth Plan
- D. Public Comment

Peggy & Bill Hedin addressed the council regarding steps to take to request annexation of the area North of Spring Creek Road and West of Hwy. 93. Dave Reynolds responded by suggesting they contact the county attorney's office and also the county G.I.S. dept. regarding possible section boundaries or other boundaries which the residents of that area could consider, should they pursue annexation into Lakeside's or other neighborhood plan. Others present from Spring Creek area were Ken & Sandra Taylor, Andrew Guy and Jere Jobe.

No one in attendance was aware of any updates regarding area residents input on desired upgrades of Ben Williams Park. Bruce Young was absent and may have an update at a future meeting. Dave Reynolds stressed the importance of taking action on this matter. The resident input request which went to the school did not produce any responses from school children's parents. Bill Buxton stated his three children in school did not get anything from the school. Jacob Doran, reporter with the West Shore News, stated there was an ad placed in the paper. No responses received by anyone on the council. Jacob volunteered to make up a simple notice, to aggressively seek input from the public on the possible uses of the park. Gregg Schoh and David Reynolds voiced concern that a plan for the park get completed and submitted to the county so as to make use of the proposed funds designated for that use.

Wallace Best offered comment about the County Commissioner's meeting he attended July 19th. Wallace spoke about the commissioners office and the election procedures for Flathead County to have 5 commissioners, also how initiatives are utilized and the time factors involved.

Discussion about the county growth plan and the section referring to neighborhood plans was shared by those in attendance. Dave Reynolds stressed the councils plans to prepare and be ready to act, upon completion of the county's plan to update Lakeside's neighborhood plan and submit to Flathead County for inclusion. David Reynolds also spoke about the importance of committee's being able to be formed to pursue various projects and how important it is that persons other than council members become involved to work those committees. All in attendance concurred that local resident involvement is important and discussion ensued about ways to bring about participation.

Jerry Thornburg motioned and Gregg Schoh seconded to adjourn, meeting adjourned.

P.S. Enclosed are two proposed fliers I plan to distribute regularly and monthly, comments please.
